Our neighbors in Denver are devoting tokeh of their time now addays to considering the Cipitel juction. A number of meetings have I cen held for the purpose of educating her sitizens up to the point of contributing a large sum of money to be expended at once in the erection of a building to form the nucleus of a capitol. Gov. Evans, who must be cred tedwith considerable fordsight, at first stoutly topposed any discussion of the Capitol question now, fearing that it might endanger the suc ess sowever, stood by him, and his course in the mave for some cays been trying to convince the Wazon roacs, trai's, etc.

people that the Governor has been entirely misunderstone-that he didn't mean what he said. etc. I 't ie meantime, every berson of ciscernment, ees that the final location of the capitol will be either at Castle Rock or Colorado Springs, between which places - sely but generous and good quibored there y is s. 1 lt may be well for us to give the former sown a complimentary voice, as politicians say, and after that work like the mischief for ourselves.

We don't object to the people of Denver exornding all their area money in a capital building. Its runs will be a glorious speciacle for Macaiday's naked fisherman to gaze upon, as he stands in the sands of Cherry Creek washing his nets in Dr. Parsons' water-holes. We think, however, that their somewhat indecent ha to to locate the capitol for the people of with the great looks of the community. The C for ide, without asking the consent of the grand exit of the age is self serking. Every man is hooking to for his own interests, and caring nothing for the good of his neighbor of Denver to become the capital of the Cen. ---- t is universally conceded that we have a len on ev I times so far as sublic virtue, in money matters is concerned. Corruption in legisla tive bodies is a rule; it has come to be understood as a settled fact that money must be used in all legislation, and that all public officers are open to the charge of bribeableness.

There have been a good many theories to account for this determination of public virtue, and many passible schemes save been exploded to cure the earl, such as Civil Service Reform, Minority Representation, and the like. The difficulty, however, is not one of machinery, but of Moral. The once sense of honor once possessed withe American people in regard to monetary and brancial matters, is very seriously weakened. On legi-lative and public officers are coring because the American people are now deficient in moral tone. The fault lierent Christian thought is vittated with this fa-tal regair for Self

And it cannot be doubted that the growth of pulsic competion and private demoralization has kept pice with the growth of Liberal Theology. Thewweakening of the old faith in Hell, the dying out of those vivid fears of incurring the Bix inc wrath which held so conspicuous a place in the old Calvinistic Theology, explain much of the cycl that we see in modern society; and with the passing away of the Orthorox torus of thought, a high sense of personal monal its passes also. What shall we say then to these things? Is the Rudical, the Positivist, the it hile, to lisheld tes ansible for these exils, and to be put in trial in the misdangs of whole communities ! Las from it. One hundred and twenty five Indians, conand musty one Kiowas and Comanches, have a SNALL FRUT BUSHES armed at Leavenworth as prisoners. Among them is the chief, Medicine Water, who con manded the hand that captured a portion of the Germain family. They have four girls as pris oners. They are encamped on the reservation, between the city and Fort Leavenworth, and guarded by a company of soldiers.

Advices from the Persian Gulf state that in tense cold has prevailed there. Seven persons had died of exposure near Bessorah. All the roads were blocked with snow, and rendered impassable for traffic. For noises along the Persian shore of the Gulf the beach was strewn with fish, which had been dr ven by the unusual cold to eave the water, and had cled n am the heach. Some o' them are e resented to have been from 100 to 150 nounce in weight.

ames Lieg, the eccentric Ca l'ornia mi ionaire, who decded away nearly all his large fortune last Summer, for a variety of henerolent surposes, has thought better of it, and now revokes the deed. Ie says he wants to provide for persons who have natural claims on him, and make some changes in his other plans, and, as his health is petting better, he tain is he will take charge o' his benevo ent mojects himse . The inference is that he will essentially carry out his origina nurposes, however, and he confirms all the acts so ar come by his trustees.
